Note: See Appendices A and F for explanation of the immigrant visa categories used in this table.

In addition to the 244,596 numbers used for visa issuances or USCIS adjustments of status, 16 family preference numbers were charged for children admitted under INA 211(a) accompanying parents with family preference visas and 12 employment preference numbers were charged for children admitted under INA 211(a) accompanying parents with employment preference visas.

In accordance with INA 203(b)(6), the 18 special immigrants who were issued visas or adjusted status during FY–2002 under INA 101(a)(27)(K) (certain U.S. armed forces personnel) were charged against the FY–2003 employment preference limit; each of the first, second, and third preferences was reduced by 6. The following FY–2003 per-country limit was reduced by the amount specified to compensate for such immigrants: Philippines 18. Since the Philippines chargeability was subject to the prorating provisions of INA 202(e), the reduction in the per-country limit was accomplished under the law as follows: each of the employment first, second, and third preferences was reduced by 6.

In accordance with Section 2(d) of the Chinese Student Protection Act of 1992 (Pub. L. 102–404), beginning with FY–1993, the China–mainland born limit will be reduced by 1,000 per fiscal year to compensate for issuances under that legislation.

Numbers assigned to issued visas that are not used are recaptured in accordance with Section 206 of the INA and can be used again for the issuance of other visas. Therefore, the total number of visas issued and adjustments of status may exceed a specified limitation.

For number use in the Diversity (DV) category, see Table VII.

<sup>1</sup> In March 2002, the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia agreed to form a new state, replacing Yugoslavia with a looser state union called Serbia and Montenegro. The new union came into effect on February 4, 2003.
